

What is Lifeline?

Lifeline is a federal program that provides assistance with the monthly access line charge or broadband Internet service. Only one Lifeline Program discount (either wireless or landline telephone, home Internet or a cell phone data plan) is allowed per household. The definition of a “household” is anyone living at an address (including children, relatives, people not related to you, etc.) who share income(s) and household expenses.

Eligibility & Application Process:

If you are enrolled in one of these programs you will qualify for Lifeline assistance:

- Medical (Title XIX/Medicaid)
- SNAP: Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (formerly Food Stamps)
- SSI: Supplemental Security Income
- Federal Public Housing Assistance (Section 8)
- Veteran’s Pension or Survivor’s Pension Benefits

You’ll need to complete a Lifeline Assistance Certification Form & Lifeline Household Worksheet. You will need to attach a copy of program enrollment, such as a notice or letter, an eligibility card, or other official document that shows you or a household member receives benefits from a qualifying assistance program.

If you are not enrolled in a qualifying program, you may be eligible based on your income, if it meets the 135% of Federal Poverty Guidelines. To apply, you’ll need to complete a Lifeline Assistance Certification Form & Lifeline Household Worksheet, and provide a copy of required documents for income certification.
